

Catering & Food Policy

The BP Energy Center's Catering & Food Policy allows you to bring food into the facility for your event. Whether on your own or from a caterer, a credit card is required on file in case additional cleaning should be needed. The cleaning fee would be no greater than $150.

When having your event catered or bringing in your own food please note:

- A credit card on file is required
- You are required to coordinate with BP Energy Center staff on facility policy and safety
- You are required to give the room and contact name, that matches your reservation, to your caterer
- You are responsible for returning event space to its original state after the conclusion of your event
- You are responsible for cleaning all food debris and/or spills from tables, chairs, and floors
- You are responsible for removing all trash, recycling and food waste at the conclusion of your event

A list of preferred caterers who are allowed in the building unattended are as follows:

Dianne's Wild Fork	(907) 279-7243	http://www.cateringanchoragealaska.com/
Peppercini's Deli & Catering	(907) 279-3354	https://peppercatering.com/
Sis's Café	(907) 562-3332	https://www.sisscafe.com/
Sweet Caribou	(907) 223-5160	http://sweetcaribou.com/
Main Event Catering	(907) 677-6888	https://maineventcateringak.com/

If you choose to use a caterer outside of this list, a copy of their Certificate of Liability and Municipality of Anchorage Food Handlers/Food Servers Cards are required prior to your event. Additionally, they must be accompanied at all times by a member of your event team that has been briefed on facility safety and procedures.

Caterers outside of our preferred list are not allowed in the facility unaccompanied.
